PATCH

In this update, we are pleased to present an overview of the progress we have made and the milestones we have reached so far, reflecting our shared commitment and collective effort.

A new tool for mentors of Special Needs learners in the hospitality sector developed

In recent months, we have continued working to develop an e-book for company tutors. It is designed to support company tutors in the catering sector in working with learners with disabilities

What is it for?

The e-book aims to provide practical guidance that tutors can easily consult and apply in their daily work.

What does it offer?

It offers practical examples, real-life situations, and operational guidance tailored to the needs of the catering sector.

The e-book is structured into six chapters, each accompanied by its own toolkit, providing hands-on resources to facilitate implementation in practice.

1: Preparing the work and corporate environment

4: Effective communication techniques

2: Strategies for work placement

5: Strategies for managing behavioral and relational issues

3: Reasonable accommodations

6: Monitoring and evaluation

PATCH progress in Heraklion

We are pleased to share the highlights from our recent transnational partner meeting (TPM) in Heraklion, whose success was made possible thanks to the valuable support and collaboration of our partner, EMPORIKO KAI VIOMICHANIKO EPIMELITIRIO HERAKLIOU (Heraklion Chamber of Commerce).

During the meeting, partners presented and reviewed the progress of the VET trainers’ Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) and tutors’ curriculum, showcasing materials and resources and engaging in discussions to improve the e-learning course. The consortium also defined next steps, including training activities and upcoming project milestones, further strengthening collaboration among partners.
